RE: Medford-Vincetown Rotary Halloween Parade

The Medford-Vincetown Rotary Club is pleased to announce that it is accepting applications from a limited number of food and novelty vendors wishing to participate in the Annual Halloween Parade.

For 66 years the Medford-Vincetown Rotary's Halloween Parade has been a main stay of Medford and is a community event that draws over 35,000 people to the downtown area. The parade now boasts over 10 marching bands, 40 floats and hundreds of costumed marchers and is the single largest yearly undertaking by the club and serves as its biggest fundraiser. 100% of the funds raised from the parade go directly to the many of the local community projects and scholarships sponsored by the Medford-Vincetown Rotary Club.

Since Medford Township has amended its Vending Ordinance, the Medford -Vincetown Rotary Club now has the responsibility of locating and approving the Vendors for this event. To insure variety and affordability, a limited number of vendors will be allowed by permit only.

Vendors submitting complete packets will be accepted on a first-come first served basis.
